

PANEL E: The Imperishable Asset? Understanding Real Estate Insolvencies

Neil Narfason, Walton Global Investments Ltd., Calgary (IIC)

Neil Narfason currently acts in the capacity as chief financial officer of Walton Global Investments LTD. His primary focus is on providing deal advisory, financial and capital advice to the Walton Group of Companies ("Walton") which are based in Canada, United States and South East Asia. Prior to joining Walton, Neil was a partner of Ernst & Young LLP for 15 years and prior to that he as a partner with Deloitte LLP. Neil Narfason has 30 plus years of experience in mergers and acquisitions, financial analysis, financial modeling, corporate financing and restructuring which has included many significant international aspects.

Robyn Gurofsky, Borden Ladner Gervais, Calgary (IIC)

Robyn Gurofsky is a partner in our Commercial Litigation Group in our Calgary office. Robyn focuses her practice in the areas of insolvency and restructuring, banking related litigation and general commercial litigation. She advises companies, boards of directors, shareholders, lenders and accounting professionals with respect to all aspects of restructuring and insolvency proceedings, whether informal or formal proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act and the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act both within Canada and on a cross-border basis. Robyn also acts for clients involved in general commercial disputes, banking specific litigation and debtor creditor matters. Robyn has appeared before the Courts in Alberta and British Columbia, as well as in the United States on cross-border matters.

David Ullmann, Blaney McMurtry LLP, Toronto

David Ullmann graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School prior to his call to the Ontario Bar in 1999. A nationally recognized restructuring expert, David spent the first decade of his career acting principally for major financial institutions, before expanding his practice to use his knowledge from the creditor side to help debtor companies negotiate solutions to their creditor issues. He was recently appointed by the court to a special consultative committee to represent the landlord stakeholders in the Target Canada insolvency proceedings, where he dealt with in excess of $6 billion in creditor claims. David was also counsel to the directors and officers of the Prizm (KFC and Pizza Hut) insolvency. His intellectual property knowledge has uniquely qualified him to assist clients in the media and technology sectors in large insolvency matters such as Nortel, Canwest, Allarco (Superchannel), TQS Inc., PSInet and Teleglobe.

Jonathan Krieger, Grant Thornton Limited, Toronto (IIC)

Jonathan Krieger is the National Practice Leader for Recovery and Reorganization at Grant Thornton in Canada. He has been involved in numerous complex insolvency cases, many involving multi-jurisdictional operations and cross-border issues. Jonathan is a Chartered Insolvency and Restructuring Professional, Chartered Accountant and Licensed Insolvency Trustee. He has worked with both lenders and debtors in providing consulting, restructuring, monitoring, investigative, business planning and other professional services. He is Chair of the Corporate Practice Committee for CAIRP. He has presented at numerous conferences to professionals on the topics of insolvency and restructuring and has had several of his articles published on restructuring related topics.
