

PANEL P: Sitting in Judgement - Practical Advice for Claims Adjudication

Sara L. Scott, Stewart McKelvey, Halifax

Sara Scott's practice is focused on corporate commercial litigation, including insolvency, tax and professional liability matters, primarily engineers, architects and surveyors. Sara's clients include financial institutions, small and large businesses, professional liability insurers and individuals facing family and tax issues.

Scott Boucher, Norton Rose Fulbright Canada LLP, Vancouver

Scott Boucher is a senior associate in the Dispute Resolution and Litigation group at Norton Rose Fulbright Canada LLP, practicing general commercial litigation with an emphasis on insolvency and restructuring litigation. He assists clients on a wide variety of domestic and cross-border matters, including contract, trusts and property disputes, and insolvency matters including receivership, CCAA, bankruptcy and foreclosure proceedings. He has appeared before the Supreme Court of British Columbia, the British Columbia Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court of Canada. After completing an undergraduate degree at UBC, Mr. Boucher attended law school at Dalhousie University. He clerked at the Supreme Court of British Columbia in 2012.

Craig Munro, FTI Consulting Canada, Vancouver (IIC)

Craig Munro is a Managing Director in the FTI Corporate Finance Practice and is based in Vancouver. Craig has been a restructuring practitioner for over 25 years. During his career he has provided restructuring advice to financial institutions, debtor companies and shareholders in a variety of industries including real estate, mining, oil and gas, technology, manufacturing, forestry and transportation. Craig has international insolvency experience having worked in Hong Kong for four years, primarily involved in the wind up of a large investment bank. Craig is a member of the Insolvency Institute of Canada, a licensed Trustee in Bankruptcy, a Chartered Insolvency and Restructuring Professional and a Chartered Accountant.

J.J. Burnell, MLT Aikins LLP, Winnipeg

J.J. Burnell has significant experience practicing in insolvency law providing legal counsel to corporations, banks, secondary lenders, venture capital firms, shareholders, creditors and debtors in the restructuring process. J.J. has the extensive depth and experience necessary to advise and assist clients across the full range of insolvency proceedings. J.J. is routinely called upon to advise on a broad range of insolvency issues extending to corporate recovery strategies, debt restructuring, arrangements, proposals, loans, loan recovery and enforcement, shareholder, director and employee issues, lender liability, bankruptcy and receivership generally. She has represented major stakeholders, holding prominent counsel roles in recent major Manitoba and extra-provincial insolvencies. J.J. is the Secretary of the Insolvency Law Section of the Canadian Bar Association and a member of the Manitoba Model Order committee. She is consistently recognized as a leading practitioner in the area of Insolvency (Financial Restructuring) by the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory and by Best Lawyers in the areas of Insolvency and Financial Restructuring.
