Licensed Insolvency Trustees: The Canadian Regulatory Regime

Author Mark Taggart (General Counsel, Justice Canada) provides a sole source of information regarding the regulation of licensed insolvency trustees under both the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act.

This title covers everything from the licensing process to professional conduct processes, conservatory measures, investigation procedures, and the range of potential sanctions that LITs may face. It is intended to provide detailed regulatory information for LITs, their counsel, and stakeholders appearing before regulatory bodies or courts.
