

INSOLVENCY ADMINISTRATION

Course Policy and Guidelines

The Association requires that all students and their sponsors review this document prior to registering new students in the course.

History:

CAIRP designed the Insolvency Administration Course in 1989 because General Members asked the Association for a course to help them train their support staff. In 1994, the course was opened to staff of the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy in an effort to help improve their understanding of the insolvency process from the practitioner's perspective. Today the course remains restricted to employees of members and staff of the OSB, as well as to staff of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) (latest addition in June 2017).

Role of the Sponsor:

Sponsors are required to log on to D2L's Brightspace to monitor their candidate's progress, in addition to marking their assignments in modules 8 and 9. Sponsors guide will be available on the learning platform D2L in case they need guidance and instructions on how to complete the requirements

Sponsors must be willing to:

- Ensure their students are registered properly to complete the 19 lessons online;
- Monitor their student's progress as they complete their lessons;
- Sit down and discuss any lesson as needed, with each student to ensure he/she understands

The Association believes that sponsors directly influence the quality of learning that the student receives while doing the course. Members have commented that the completion of the course is seen as an asset when considering otherwise equally qualified candidates for employment. This can only be held true if all sponsors maintain the same high level of integrity and support for their staff in the course.

Enrolling new students:

The course operates on continuous enrolment; applications are accepted throughout the year. The Association can only process those applications that are complete and accompanied by a cheque (or credit card information) for the full fee amount; You will receive access to the online course only once your application has been approved and full payment received.

Course Fee Structure:

AB, BC, SK, MB (5%)	Quebec	ON (13%)	NB, NL, NS, PE (15%)
Course Fee $650.00	Course Fee $650.00	Course Fee $650.00	Course Fee $650.00
GS $32.50	GST(5%) $32.50	HST $84.50	HST $97.50
	QS (9.975%) $64.84
Total $682.50	Total $747.34	Total $734.50	Total $747.50

Structure of the Course:

The course consists of nineteen (19) modules (lessons) to be done online. The only pre-requisite is that a member of the Association or a Licensed Insolvency Trustee employed in the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy must sponsor each student. CRA students are matched with supervisors in their departments. Once enrolled in the course, the student will receive online access to the course materials, including Competency Assessments. Each module requires completion of the corresponding Competency Assessment. Students must achieve a minimum mark of 60% on each Competency Assessment prior to getting access to the next module.

Sponsors will be required to verify the final assignment marks for their students at the time an exam application is submitted. Exam applications and final marks are normally due 4 weeks prior to the actual examination date. Once the exam date is announced, students and sponsors are requested to set their study and review schedule accordingly to be able to meet the deadlines.

Course Materials:

The current course has been updated in June 2017. Students will be able to access the course material online once they receive their login credentials upon enrolment in the course.

Exam Policy and Fee Structure:

The Association will offer a final examination to all students bi-annually, in April and October. A final mark of 60% is required to pass.

The total period of time students may remain in the Course is five years since the date of their initial registration. The student must attempt the exam for the first time within the first two years of their enrolment date. Students may choose to “defer” any exam that occurs in that two-year period, as long as they attempt the exam at least once during that time. If the first attempt was unsuccessful, they may retake the exam as many times as they wish within the successive three years. Students who do not meet this condition must re-enrol in the course.

The course fee includes the students' first attempt at the exam. A separate exam fee will be charged for each successive attempt (as per the table below).

AB, BC, SK, MB (5%)	Quebec	ON (13%)	NB, NL, NS, PE (15%)
Exam Fee $350.00	Exam Fee $350.00	Exam Fee $350.00	Exam Fee $350.00
GST $17.50	GST(5%) $17.50	HST $45.50	HST $52.50
	QST(9.975%) $34.91
Total $367.50	Total $402.41	Total $395.50	Total $402.50

Additional possible fees:

- Renewal of student's access to online assignments after the first two-year initial access: $50 + tax
- Reprint of Certificate of Completion: $50 + tax

The examination is administered by the sponsor under formal exam conditions at the student's place of employment. The exam is completed online, on a secure website, and is marked by the Association. Since the exam is multiple-choice and marked by computer, there is no appeal process.

The Association endeavours to give adequate notice each year of the impending exam in order to allow students and sponsors plenty of time to prepare, submit marks on all assignments and register the student. Registration forms are provided to all students, every year, for their consideration; it is the student's responsibility to ensure that we have his/her current business mailing address and contact information at all times, and to indicate their decision to write or defer EACH exam. Students who pass the exam are issued a certificate of successful completion.

Keeping in touch with students and sponsors:

From time to time, the Association may publish updates, corrections or supplementary materials to the course; in these situations we endeavour to notify every student and/or sponsor about any additional material.

In the interests of expediency, all students are requested to provide an e-mail address at the time of enrolment and to ensure this information is kept current. The Association will not be responsible for emails that are not delivered due to the selection of a non-business email address.

Resignation of Students and Transfer of Course Material

Students who cease employment with their sponsor will be considered as having resigned from the course since having a sponsor is a mandatory condition of enrolment. We would ask that sponsors notify the Association immediately of the departure of any student so we may then consider them resigned from the course and close their files.

Please note: that transfers to non-insolvency firms and requests to complete the course under a “former sponsor” will be automatically denied.

Students who leave their employer, and join another insolvency practice, but have not yet completed the course and wish to continue their studies, must contact the Association immediately to organize the transfer of their course. An administration fee of $100 plus applicable taxes will apply to all transfers of students between employers. Upon receipt of the administration fee, the student may continue their studies without interruption.

Please note: It is ultimately the decision of the sponsor as to whether the student may leave their employ “with” the course or if the course belongs to the firm – normally this depends on who pays for the course and the Association takes no part in this decision.

If a student should leave the employ of their sponsor and the sponsor keeps the course, the sponsor may apply to the Association to negotiate the refund of course fees or the transfer of the course to another employee provided the following conditions are met:

1. The firm must have paid for the original (departing) student's course fees;
2. The application for a transfer or refund must be made within 60 days of the original student's enrolment date (no exceptions will be made to this time limit) in writing;
3. A transfer of course materials from one employee to another will be allowed only once;
4. An administration fee of $100 plus applicable taxes will be charged to the firm to allow the transfer of course materials to a new student.

Requirements for Admission:

The Insolvency Administration (IA) course is a nineteen-lesson correspondence course provided by the Canadian Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Professionals. The course deals with insolvency matters from an administrative perspective.

The course was developed by and is owned solely by the Canadian Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Professionals (CAIRP). The members of the Association developed the course to help educate their staff who fulfill the function of estate administration.

As such, admission is restricted to those persons who fall under one of the three following categories:

1. Employee of a Member of the Association;
2. Selected employees of the Canada Revenue Agency, Insolvency Unit1;
3. Employees of the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy who are sponsored by a Licensed Insolvency Trustee.

In the first case, the Member must sign a declaration that the individual is directly employed in their office in the role of estate administration and is not the employee of a third-party company or contracted credit-counselling firm. This course is not open to the general public and therefore persons in the latter case are not eligible to take this course.

There is no educational pre-requisite for the IA course nor is there a work-experience requirement although applicants may find it more useful to take the course after having worked for several months in an insolvency practice.

This course is not related to the Insolvency Counsellor's Qualification Course or ICQC (offered through the CQP) for qualifying persons to do insolvency counselling. Please note that nothing in the IA course rules prevents qualified applicants from taking both courses simultaneously if their sponsor approves.

Successful candidates of the Insolvency Administration Course receive a Certificate of Completion, but are not formally "certified" by the Association in any way.
