Course Description

Background

The Practical Course in Insolvency Counseling is available in English and French through the CIRP Qualification Program (CQP) and the Canadian Association of Insolvency and Restructuring Professionals (CAIRP).

Only qualified Insolvency Counsellors are permitted to counsel under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (BIA). The PCIC provides the foundation for insolvency counselling and is one of the requirements for becoming a qualified counsellor under the BIA. All requirements are listed in the section “Becoming a Qualified Counsellor” located at the end of this brochure.

Course Structure

This online course for CQP candidates and those who provide BIA counselling to bankrupts and debtors provides the basic knowledge required by a competent Insolvency Counsellor. Course topics, are arranged into four modules:

- 1. PERSONAL INSOLVENCY/BANKRUPTCY UNDER THE BIA
- 2. INTERVIEWING AND COUNSELLING
- 3. BUDGETING AND ELEMENTS OF PERSONAL FINANCE
- 4. MONEY IN CONTEXT

Each module contains an introduction and overview, case examples, presentation of key concepts and skills, review sections, and self-tests. Emphasis is placed on the practical application of theoretical knowledge. Candidates work through the material at their own pace in preparation for the final examination. There are links throughout the material to the OSB Counselor training module, checklists and the OSB online debtor curriculum, which are required knowledge for all BIA counsellors.

There are two assessments which must be completed prior to challenging the final examination. Each assessment will be a role play of the first and second counselling sessions. You will be required to provide “reflections” on this exercise to your LIT for assessment. If you do not have a sponsor or you are unable to find an LIT to mark your submission, please contact CAIRP.
